DYEING TO WEAR IT[®]

A wearable art program for adults with Rhonda M. Fazio
of Interwoven Studio

Voices: A Common Thread

Learn about the beauty and the story of natural color!

Make your own gifts for the holidays.
Each person receives 2 silk scarves to design with Artist Rhonda M. Fazio of Dyer Maker Studio.

Rhonda is a self-proclaimed environmental alchemist. "My work with food and fabric reflect the essential connection between people from all over the world in relation to the journey of the human narrative.
In America, it is a story we all share, and we are all Interwoven because of it." - www.rhondamfazio.com

Blackstone residents can register starting Friday, September 5, all others Friday, September 12.

Call or come in to Register. For more information, please contact the Blackstone Public Library at 508-883-1931.

Dyeing to Wear It is supported by grant funds from the Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the
