“Bloody Mary. Bloody Mary. Bloody M—” don’t say it!

Our lives, since we were children, have been interwoven with legends about grim grinning ghosts, troubling talismans, and strange superstitions. Broken mirrors. Black cats. Lucky charms. Unlucky number 13. Walking under ladders. All these things and so much more are a part of the weirder side of our collective human experience. But where did they come from? Why have some ideas lingered from generation to generation? And what else is out there? Get ready to get spooked, to learn, and to explore when you book Dustin’s Legends, Lore, and Some Thing More.
